Cancellation conditions of the reservation

You must confirm your cancellation in writing.

If required, we offer a cancellation insurance for 7 € per started week. This insurance covers in certain cases of cancellation or early termination of the holiday. If your reason of cancellation meets the conditions set, payments that have already been made can be refunded.

Except in the event of force majeure (Article 1148 of the civil code) no reimbursement can take place, which does not fall within the cancellation conditions.

Principle of reciprocity: the cancellation conditions are applied in favor of the consumer in case of cancellation of the campsite.

House rules (extract)

The house rules are posted at the reception of the campsite. If you are a customer of the campsite, you automatically fall under this house rules.

The house rules:

Children are the responsibility of the parents at the campsite.

Dogs are allowed on the campsite but are forbidden around the swimming pool, in sanitary buildings, in the shop and at the children's playgrounds. They must be constantly kept on a leash at the campsite. A vaccination certificate can be requested at any time. Only 1 pet per pitch is allowed. The dogs may be left alone in the rented holiday home or at the pitch. Dogs from category 1 and 2 are not allowed.

No installation (tent), vehicle or extra person is allowed for the rented without the agreement of the campsite.

For security reasons and from the point of view of insurance, the number of persons per pitch may not exceed the maximum, which is indicated per rented accommodation. If the opposite is the case upon arrival, the campsite may refuse entry to the holiday home.

Swimming pools: we remind you that the swimming pools and slides can be dangerous. Young children are only allowed to use the swimming pool under supervision. Children who wear a diaper must wear special pool diapers and you should respect the standards of hygiene. Children who are not yet able to swim should wear inflatable bracelets. The pool is the place for relaxation, dangerous behavior or annoying behavior is prohibited. The swimming pool offers unguarded swimming.

The visitors for a day do not have access to the pool from the insurance point of view.
